

Darragh Kerins wins the $75,000 Footings Unlimited Grand Prix

Darragh Kerns and Night Train, a Lili Weik PhotoHits-on-the-Hudson wrapped up its summer season with Week VII competition ending yesterday. The main attraction of the day was the $75,000 Footings Unlimited Grand Prix. Darragh Kerins riding Double H Farms Night Train was the winner, with Todd Minilus on his own Ultimo Rouge claiming second and again aboard his own Pavarotti in third.

While the Hits-on-the-Hudson series is over competition continues at Saugerties. The long-awaited 2007 Marshall & Sterling League Finals will take place September 13 - 16. Members of the Marshall & Sterling League compete all year for points in order to qualify for this prestigious year-end event. The top-10 riders in each division will be recognized during the Year-End High Point Awards celebration on Friday, September 14 which also includes a special dinner catered by Tavern on the Green Catering and a musical performance by Suzanne Vega.